

Executive Secretary

2-4597

7 January 1952

MEMORANDUM TO: Lt. Colonel James L. Miller
Executive Officer, Military History Section
GHQ, FEC

Subject: Transmittal of Intelligence Series

Reference: Your memo 17 Oct 1951 to General Sedell Smith,
Director, Central Intelligence Agency.

Referenced memorandum advises that Volume X, Intelligence Series, consisting of three books—Text and Documentary Appendices I and II—was being transmitted under separate cover.

Today we received from the Departmental Records Branch, AGO, Department of the Army, two shipping cases, numbers US 16801 and US 16803, addressed to General Smith, containing two sets of Volume X, Intelligence Series—Text and Documentary Appendices I and II.

-----

Your memorandum of 16 October 1951, same subject as above, advised that Copy No. 11, Volume III, Intelligence Series, consisting of 6 books, Text I, II, III, and Documentary Appendices I, II, and III were being transmitted under separate cover. This shipment has not yet been received.

Assistant to the Director

25X1A

Enclosure:
Receipt

O/DCI-1ec

Distribution:

Orig--addressee

2 cc--signer(reading
(official)

1 cc--Library, OCD--w/ 2 sets Volume X, Intel. Series--Text & Doc.Apps I & II
1 cc--Administrative Files w/ basic memo